CONDITIONS OF SALE

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it ; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are put up for sale subject (a) to any reserve price imposed by the seller and (b) to the right of the seller to bid either personally or else by any one person who may be the Auctioneer.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound or more, in part payment of the purchase money ; in default of which the lot or lots purchased may be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. All lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. Messrs. Sotheby & Co. act as agents ; they have full discretion to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale without in either case giving any reason ; they are not responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot or for any fault or defect in it. Messrs. Sotheby make no warranty whatever.
- VI. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's risk and expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale ; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if the same are lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to a charge for warehousing. If, at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the sale, unless otherwise agreed, the lots are not cleared or paid for, they may then be sold immediately, either publicly or by private treaty, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VII. Upon failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above conditions, the money deposited in part-payment shall be forfeited ; and the defaulter at this sale shall make good any loss arising from the re-sale, together with the charges and expenses in respect of both sales.

To prevent confusion no purchases can be claimed or removed during the sale.

Messrs. SOTHEBY & Co.

are prepared to execute bids, and in addition to advise intending purchasers as far as possible, if requested by them to do so, without making any charge for either service. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

OBJECTS OF VERTU

68 AN INTERESTING JACOBITE RELIC. A gold Watch by Julien Le Roy, à Paris, with white enamel dial and hour and seconds rings and with repeating action inscribed round the rim "Inv. par Jul. le Roy en 1749", in plain outer case; the watch contained in a later wooden Box, the lid inset with an oval Miniature of Prince Charles Edward wearing the Ribbon of the Garter, after the portrait by Robert Strange, miniature 1½in., box 3½in. 2

 Exhibited in the Collection of Stuart Relics, Manchester Exhibition, 1887.

This was acquired by James Byres, b. 1733, d. 1817, (whose father Patrick Byres of Tonley fought at Culloden). He was a devoted Jacobite and fled the country. He was for some time an officer in Lord Ogilvie's Regiment and afterwards resided in Rome for forty years and was a friend of Cardinal York (Prince Henry, brother of Prince Charles Edward) from whom he no doubt received these relics. He was devoted to the fine arts and was the author of Hypogaei or Sepulchral Caverns of Tarquinia; he acquired the famous Portland vase which he afterwards sold to Sir William Hamilton.

The Property of Sir Anthony Compton-Thornhill, Bt.
Barham Hall, Ipswich

69 MASTER THOMAS THORNHILL by Richard Cosway, full length, standing by the base of a pillar, wearing a large hat with feathers, full face with long hair falling to the shoulders, lace collar and rosettes on the shoes, his right hand resting on his hip, the left hand resting on the head of a large dog, on whose collar can be discerned the letters T. Thor.; the drawing is in pencil except for the head which is in colours, 9½in. high, 6¾in. wide; on paper; gilt frame

 Engraved by G. T. Stubbs, 1797; see "A Catalogue Raisonné of the engraved Works of Richard Cosway, R.A." by Frederick B. Daniel, where this original drawing is mentioned on p. 36.

Thomas Thornhill, Squire of Riddlesworth Hall, Norfolk, and member of the Jockey Club, was a celebrated owner. He won the Derby in 1818 and 1820, the Oaks in 1819, dead heat for the St. Leger in 1839, and among other successes was twice winner of the Ascot Gold Cup.

Great-grandfather of the present owner.

Stroehling worked in London from 1803-1807, and 1819-1826, and was responsible for many fine portraits. See "Thieme-Becker", vol. 32, p. 199; also Lemberger, p. 97.
